

Students for a Creative Iowa thanks all of the following people who helped make Iowa's Destination ImagiNation program a success this year. We could not run this program without your help!

- Affiliate Board members
- Tournament Directors
- Affiliate Webmaster
- All Challenge Masters
- Rick Sweet for a $600 donation for computers
- Grinnell Mutual Insurance for donating 6 laptops
- Carroll Pepsi - Cola Bottlers & Rick Hoffman for donating pop and bottled water for Appraisers
- Hy-Vee (Urbandale) for donating Instant Challenge materials
- Panera Bread for discounting the cost of Appraiser lunches at the Eastern Regional and State Tournaments
- American Legion of Iowa Foundation for medals and award plaques
- Kwik Trip of Urbandale (100th St. & Douglas Ave.) for some Instant Challenge supplies
- Laura Cruse for donating $20 when unable to attend the Instant Challenger
- John Nolan for donating a printer
- Iowa Energy Center for printing and free use of facilities for Board meetings
- Carroll Kuemper Catholic Schools for hosting our tournament
- Kirkwood Community College and Ames Middle School for hosting our tournaments and free use of the facilities
- Thanks to their site liaisons, as follows: Bruce Antion of Ames Middle School; Tim Fitzpatrick & Penny Miller of Carroll Kuemper Catholic Schools; and Lori Bell of Kirkwood Community College
- All Appraising volunteers, school Coordinators, workshop facilitators, Team Managers and parents who provide the DI experience to Iowa students

